

On behalf of St Joseph's Missionary Society I would like to thank the following for their part in the design, construction and furnishing of the Heritage Centre:

Our Architects from the Owen Ellis Partnership.

Our Principal Contractors from White Building Services.

Our Structural Engineers from the Alan Johnston Partnership.

Our Quantity Surveyors from Todd & Ledson.

Our Health & Safety Consultants from Nationwide CDM.

Our Carpenters and Masons from Ormsby of Scarisbrick.

Br Jos Boerkamp who shouldered the responsibility on behalf of the Society.

Fr Bernard Fox and the British Regional Council for their cooperation

Fr Downs the very capable man on the spot throughout the building

Fr Charles Cammack who for three years made room in his house for a mountain of archive boxes.

Alan and Dean Trish, Brother Tom Quinn, Mr Peter Turnbull for their hard work in transferring our archive collection from storage into its new home.

Our Archivists:

Fr Wim Mol, who worked for many years to create order out of chaos of our historical records.

Fr Hans Boerakker, who continued this work and who saw the collection through its period of transition from Mill Hill to Freshfield.

Mr Peter Turnbull, who has worked for a number of years as a very helpful and able assistant to the archivist.

Fr Tom O'Brien, the present archivist, for his efficiency and creativity in organisation and presentation.

Margaret Taylor, who is lending her expertise to the ongoing work of preserving our heritage
